

Remembrance Sunday

Church of the Resurrection and St Barnabas

Remembrance Sunday

Today we especially remember those who have given their lives through war in the service of our country. They left home and family in the search of justice and peace; everyday we live in the freedom their sacrifice bought for us. The world would be a very different place for us today without their service. The memories we recall this Remembrance Sunday should encourage us in the search for true peace and harmony throughout the world.

As our Lord Jesus commanded the apostles 'Do this in memory of me' we pray today for the graces of the great sacrifice of Calvary to engulf the whole world that we may live in the harmony for which Christ prayed; and to our fallen we say: 'We will remember them.'

Please welcome our new Area Dean Revd Helen Scanlan who will be preaching for us this morning
